REGU & DOUBLES SEPAK TAKRAW COACHING DEVELOPMENT COMMUNITY SPORT STREAM - INITIATION

PRACTICAL FORM

Currently, the Sepak Takraw Association of Canada (STAC) and Sepak Takraw Saskatchewan (STAS) are in the midst of working together with the Coaching Association of Canada (CAC) to create and pilot an National Coaching Certification Program for Sepak Takraw, starting with the Regu and Doubles games. While this process is underway, STAC and STAS are already training and certifying coaches for the Community Sport Stream and are available to help other provinces do the same. Hence, the minimum requirements for achieving Community Sport Stream Coaching Certification in Regu/Doubles Sepak Takraw as set out by the Sepak Takraw Association of Canada are:

1. Theory – Successful completion of the Introduction to Competition-A Course (old Level 1 Theory) ... after which coach is considered “In Training”;
2. Technical – Successful completion of the Community Sport Stream Technical Regu/Doubles Sepak Takraw Clinic ... after which coach is considered “Trained”;
3. Practical – Successful completion of the Practical Sepak Takraw Coaching Component as per outlined below ... after which coach is considered “Certified”:
 - Coach or assist in the coaching of a Sepak Takraw team, or several teams in a club, for an Indoor or Outdoor Season (3-month period) entailing at least 20 hours of practice/training;
 - Observe a Competition Stream practice in any sport conducted by a NCCP certified coach and complete the Observation Form and return it to the STAC office, or your Provincial Sepak Takraw Office if applicable;
 - Complete the Self-Improvement Plan Form and return it to the STAC office, or your Provincial Sepak Takraw Office if applicable;
 - Complete this Practical Component Form and return it to the STAC office, or your Provincial Sepak Takraw Office if applicable;
 - Individual Membership with STAC, or your Provincial Sepak Takraw Association, is mandatory during the Practical Component period.
